

Data Protection Information

Active Health Edinburgh Ltd. need your personal data in case we need to contact you or your next of kin. This information will not be shared with any third party without your express permission. All stored information is password protected.

Active Health Edinburgh Ltd. need your medical information to ensure that any treatment is as safe and effective as possible. All written records are kept locked away.

Our calls may be answered by Real Time Reception Ltd. Real Time Reception Ltd. will not use or share your personal data. Please note all calls are recorded and the recording stored for 3 months and then deleted. All stored information is password protected.